

"Scars on our hands and pain in our bodies, we press on. Born of rugged earth and earnest toil, the testament of our struggle."

Brand	Tooth & Nail
Wine Name	The Glutton
Vintage	2014
Blend	77% Syrah, 23% Petite Sirah
Appellation	Paso Robles
	Tolliver Ranch
Vineyard	Bordered by the Estrella river in Paso Robles, Tolliver Ranch features well-drained, sandy-gravelly soils that, unlike most soil profiles in the region, are acidic due to the presence of decomposed granite. Conditions at the site are ideal for big reds - Petite Sirah, Syrah and Cabernet - which thrive in the vineyard's soils, and utilizes the long growing season at the property to slowly and fully ripen. It's this long growing season that builds the complexity of flavours in the wine
Ageing and oak	18 months
	33% New French oak, 67% Neutral
PH	3.8 pH
TA	5.5 g/L
Alcohol	14.8%
Ageing Potential	7-9 years
Notes	Aromatically, "The Glutton" is driven by Black Cherry, savory minerality, cured meat and bay leaf. The Petite Sirah contributes warm cinnamon spice and darker fruit notes to the nose as well. On the palate, this vintage is dominated by raspberry preserves and cocoa flavors with some lingering sweetness from French Oak tannins, which frames this savory wine beautifully .
Sexy Note	Savory herds & spices meet seductive cherry & dark fruit. Raspberry and cocoa dominate then blend with sweet oak to finish
Geek Out Note	Enjoy this with every day BBQ or even Julia Child's Beef Bourgne.
Label Story	Audobon depicts the ferocious and ravenous wolverine scavaging a nest and satisfying its GLUTTONous ways
