2016 TOOTH & NAIL THE STAND

88% Petite Sirah, 11% Syrah, 1% Viognier

LABELSTORY: These are our blended wines; bold, unconventional & unapologetic. The Tooth & Nail labels are John James Audubon originals; beasts of the early 1830s fighting "Tooth & Nail" to survive. Here Audubon depicts the brave boar protecting its den. No matter if one falls, there will always be another to STAND sentinel.

VINEYARD: Tolliver Ranch

Bordered by the Estrella river in Paso Robles, Tolliver Ranch features well-drained, sandy-gravelly soils that are acidic due to the presence of decomposed granite, unlike most soil profiles in the Paso Robles region. Conditions at the site are ideal for big red vineyard's soils, and utilize the long growing season. The combination of terroir and a slow and steady growing ripening season builds complexity of flavors in the wine.

WINEMAKER'S TASTING NOTES:

Dark and inky in color. Ripe notes of black berries, raspberry preserves and mission fig with an intriguing subtle floral lift coming from the 1% of Viognier. The mouthfeel is rich and lush with flavors of dark fruit and hints of white cake batter and cocoa. With outstanding concentration and density on the mid palate, the finish is balanced with savory acidity and integrated tannins which round out the wine, seamlessly.

*"Scares on our hands and pains in our bodies, we press on.
These wines, born of rugged earth and earnest toil, are the testaments of our struggle."*
