2015 AMOR FATI CHARDONNAY

100% Chardonnay

LABEL STORY: Amor Fati translates in Latin to "the love of one's fate."

Aggressive and engulfing, yet showcasing restrained balance on the palate; tannins are lush, round, unprecedented. Labels are sketch renditions of William Blake's 1793 work "The Marriage Of Heaven and Hell." Look deep into the symmetrical label to find confluence and transformation, shown by the bird flying through the air and the woman's metamorphosis to the mythical mermaid. Drink more to see more.

VINEYARD: Murmur Vineyard

South facing sand slope, weathers 25° diurnal shifts, summer sun and bitter winds. Borders the most South Western portion of Santa Maria AVA, 12 miles from the Pacific Ocean. Dynamic varieties, clones, rootstock and innovative farming.

WINEMAKER'S TASTING NOTES:

Ripe notes of pineapple, red apple and meyer lemon are enhanced with toasty oak, vanilla bean, marzipan, and peach. The palate opens with a fantastically weighty mouthfeel with rich flavors of pineapple juice, apple peel and blanched almonds with a creamy complexity balanced with a lemon pith-like structure. The finish streamlines with zesty acidity, giving this rich wine a clean and refreshing finish loaded with stone. Smuggle this bottle into a movie theater for that Rom-Com to pair with a bucket of popcorn. Or better yet, drink two bottles, watch the Notebook and have a good cry.

"And those who were seen dancing were thought to be insane by those who could not hear the music."

90 POINTS: "Light and delicate on the nose, this single-vineyard Chardonnay shows white peach, honeysuckle and browned butter on the nose. There is good tension to the sip, but also riper flavors of apple cider, pan-seared pear and lemon preserves." M.K.11/17
